REPORTER NICK HITCHENS

nhitchens@london.newsquest.co.uk

More than two years after planning permission was granted, and following a protracted legal battle that went to the High Court, construction on an incinerator designed to burn £302,000 tonnes of rubbish a year is set to begin.

Viridor, the company awarded the contract to deal with waste from Kingston, Croydon, Sutton and Merton under the South London Waste Partnership (SWLP) formally issued the Notice to Proceed (NTP) for the start of construction of the £200m plant at Beddington Lane, Sutton on June 12. Work will begin in July.

The plans have been a source of huge controversy, particularly since receiving planning permission, firstly from Sutton Council in May 2013, and then from the Mayor of London and the Government later that year. Campaign group Stop the Incinerator took Sutton Council to the High Court over the granting of the permission, with its final appeal defeated in April this year.

Shasha Khan, who has led the fight, still holds hopes the plan can be delayed. He said: "It was seven years ago that I was first advised that the likely outcome of the 2008 South London Waste Plan consultation was to build an incinerator. "I recall meeting with Emma Smyth, who was at the time the South London Waste Partnership Project Manager, in the summer of 2008 to discuss the real intention of the consultation. So personally it has been a long battle.

"Unsurprisingly Viridor want to start the construction as quickly as possible because in the eyes of local residents it brings a finality to the challenge even though there are number of unresolved matters.

"There are ongoing complaints about Viridor being let 'off the hook' in complying with crucial habitat agreements for the nature reserve."

He added he was receiving advice about taking the case to the European Court of Human Rights.

The plant, called an Energy Recovery Facility by Viridor and SWLP will comprise of a main building 42m in height, with a chimney 100m tall, similar in height to the nearby towers at Ikea in the Valley Park retail complex.

A waste transfer station, a workshop and a building, housing an education centre, combined heat and power equipment and administrative facilities will also be constructed.

It is being built at a site that has been used as landfill since the 90s but was set to become part of a huge regional park in 2023. Despite this, and the fact the land is Metropolitan Open Land, which carries status similar to green belt, the plan was approved.

The proposal will consolidate waste management on about three hectares of the 7.4 hectare area, and the remainder would be restored to open land use. In Viridor's initial application it stated this restoration will be done by 2023, while the incinerator was hoped to be up and running in 2017 - landfill ceasing in 2018.

A new access road is to be built from Coomber Way roundabout and during peak construction the site will see 770 lorry movements a day, up from 732 that were recorded as the average in 2013.

Top, work that has started on constructing a new access road to the site. Above, an artist's impression of the incinerator

The company has stated once the facility is running this number will be 666, and lorry movements will be scheduled between 7am and 8pm Monday to Friday, 7am - 6pm on Saturday.

Two pipelines will be built to deliver heat to customers, while Viridor expects the plant to produce 26 megawatts - enough power for around 30,000 homes.

The deal is expected to save the SLWP about £200m over 25 years, and lead to a reduction of 60,000 tonnes per annum of CO2 emissions that come from landfill.

Viridor also expect the plant to create 40 permanent jobs and plans to hold a meeting shortly with local contractors over the work.

Alan Cumming, Viridor Capital Projects and Engineering Director said: "We are pleased to now be able to begin construction works on this important project.

"The construction of Beddington

ERF will deliver much-needed social infrastructure, using leading-edge technology to transform waste into vital energy for South London. Viridor and its partners are set to deliver a world-class facility for the South London Waste Partnership.

"We remain committed to providing clear information on the project, and will be in contact with local residents and wider stakeholders throughout the construction and operational phases."

As part of the planning application Viridor also agreed in 2013 to provide close to £2m in grants to the community as well as £40 a year to provide a warden for the new wetlands area being created.

A spokesman for the company said details would be announced soon about how organisations can apply for these grants, while a newsletter is being prepared to be posted to surrounding areas with full details of the impact of construction work.

Ernie Prior

Resident of The Royal Star & Garter Homes – Surbiton

Monte Cassino was one of the Second World War's toughest and bloodiest battles in Western Europe. When ex-trooper Ernie Prior returned there to visit the Allied cemetery, the first grave he came across was a soldier from his Regiment. The memories are still vivid in his mind all these years later.

Today, Ernie is one of residents of The Royal Star & Garter Homes – Surbiton. He receives specialist nursing and therapeutic care so that he can remain independent and enjoy life. However, as a charity we rely on the generosity of our supporters to fund the high level of specialist care that we provide.

Ernie's story of courage and loss is just one of many that make our residents so deserving of the respect and care we give them. That is why, this Armed Forces Day, we ask you to show your support for local veterans such as Ernie and others like him in our Surbiton Home by leaving a gift in your Will to acknowledge those who gave so much for us.

Independent Retailer Month

CELEBRATE

Independent Retailer Month

There are over 169,000 independent retail businesses in the UK, equating to 92% of all retail businesses. From fashion boutiques and art galleries to convenience shops and DIY stores, independent retailers form a valuable and treasured part of many communities. They also form an integral part of local economies and contribute greatly to local employment. Independent Retailer Month and Independents' Day is a chance for the public to show their appreciation and support for these local retailers

Introducing Independent Retailer Month

July marks the UK's fourth Independent Retailer Month, aiming to raise awareness of thousands of local businesses and increase footfall into town and village centres, and helping retailers to stay open and improve their network of fellow traders.

The month-long celebration calls upon retailers to unite and create promotions, activities and events to capture the imagination of the local community, and remind people exactly what their local centres have to offer them.

Clare Rayner, who founded the Support for Independent Retail campaign in 2011, is calling on shoppers to take 20 per cent of their monthly budget and spend it with local retailers rather than in chains out-of-town centres or online.

"This campaign is now in its fourth year and it couldn't be more important. Only last month it was revealed that the number of empty shops across the UK has hit an all-time high according to the British Retail Consortium*, and the only way to try and stem further closures is for retailers to be proactive and not only remind local customers to the fact that they're here, but to give them more reasons to visit," said Clare.

"The key to both survival and success is to encourage local people to shop locally, relishing in the mix of both well-known high street names and independent, local businesses. Shoppers appreciate a unique offering. Each town needs to appreciate and support the independent retailers that make it a unique location.

"There are some 192,000 independent businesses in the UK, and almost 250,000 shops are occupied by them – the more of them who take part in Independent Retailer Month to celebrate their input and impact into the retail environment, the stronger they will become," she added.

The Independent retailers, shops, cafes and salons and boutiques, are what make each of our towns unique. Without them our towns would be clones, with all the same shop fronts – dull and bland. Independents add vibrancy, diversity and often provide a route to market for smaller brands, makers and designers who might otherwise never get their products in front of shoppers. Often leading on service, offering a more attentive, personal approach, it's no wonder smaller, independent retailers are often described fondly as "our friendly, local, independent...." But times are tough, it's well reported that shoppers have drifted away, attracted by free parking, controlled environment, discounts and apparent convenience of out of town shopping centres. Shoppers need reminding about what's on their doorstep – and that's what Independent retailer month is all about.

Get involved! So what can you do?

Visit nearby towns and villages, to explore the local, independent businesses in your community and rediscover what the businesses have to offer.

If you really do care about having a sustainable, thriving high street, vote with your feet and with your wallets!

For every pound you spend in a local independent shop or locally owned business up to 70p benefits your local community whereas if you shop at an out of town centre or online with one of the retail multiples, as little as 5p finds its way back.

So next time you go shopping, think about where your pound is going. Is it into some corporate shareholder's pocket or invested in your local community to make it a better place

CROWD PLEASERS

As Britain's Got Talent winners Collabro prepare to play British Summer Time at Hyde Park this weekend, Vibe's JIM PALMER talks to singer Michael Auger

Remarkably, Collabro didn't even know each other 18 months but it's now been a year since the band won Britain's Got Talent.

Since then they have had a number one album, performed in front of Wills and Kate at the Royal Variety Performance, signed a million pound US record contract and, this month, released their second album, Act Two.

Singer Michael Auger, 25, told Kingston Guardian: "It has felt really quick but when you list out what we have done you think 'how have I fitted it into that time?'"

"Singing has always been all of our passions and it is great now to be doing that as a lifestyle."

As reigning champions, Collabro got a hero's welcome when they performed at the Britain's Got Talent semi finals.

Michael, who worked at a petrol station before the show, said: "Everyone was just so lovely to us."

"We saw the contestants and they were like 'Oh my god, it's Collabro' and they were trying to sneak photos of us on their phones."

"Last year that was us with the other acts."

Whereas they were once star struck, Michael said most famous people they meet are quite normal.

He said: "When you meet people like Ed Sheeran and One Direction – people that we idolise – they are just normal guys that want to chat about your shoes and your outfit and what you had for dinner."

On Sunday, the five-piece will perform at British Summer Time at Hyde Park on a family-oriented bill alongside X Factor boyband Union J, CBeebies Justin Fletcher, Dick and Dom and loads more.

Michael said: "I think it will be really fun. We absolutely loved doing summertime shows last year, singing for thousands of people enjoying the sunshine."

"We had 50,000 people last year singing Let It Go back to us at Brighton Pride. We would like to have everyone singing along and just

"Hopefully it will be a sunny day and we can enjoy some picnic food."

This month, the band has been working hard to promote their second album – aptly named Act Two.

Like their first album, Stars, it features a mix of big musical theatre tracks (Memory from Cats and I Dreamed A Dream) as well as pop crossovers (such as the Friends theme I'll Be There For You) and movie tunes (The Lion King's Circle of Life).

The band invited fans – nicknamed Collaborators – to help choose tracks and their suggestions were whittled down to 20 which were recorded.

Michael said: "Based on those we thought about what would work, what would make a good album, what songs go together, which songs means stuff to us individually."

"We came to a set of ten and sat down and made sure everyone was happy – including Simon Cowell – and I think we have got a great balance between musical theatre and these pop crossovers now."

The last year has been a rollercoaster ride for the five young men who barely knew each other before entering Britain's Got Talent and Michael revealed the album title was nearly Friends.

He said: "Now we're literally brothers and best friends and we all know what makes each other tick and how to make each other happy if someone's feeling a bit down and things like that. I think that's really important."

"During the Britain's Got Talent process we were so close because we all wanted that same goal and we all wanted to do so well and we were all just loving singing."

"Actually, to be honest, afterwards when we got rushed to the studio and rushed here, there and everywhere, it got quite intense."

"Everyone now is on the same wavelength to be honest."

Collabro play British Summer Time at Hyde Park on June 28. Go to ANYONE FOR TENNIS?

Home/Driveway mini tennis package, £129

Watching Andy Murray and Heather Watson smash the ball around the grass at Wimbledon is sure to have us glued to the TV but what if you want a little knock around yourself?

Unless you're a member of a club already – or heaven forbid, you have your own court – then it's likely you'll find a queue for the tarmac down at the park. And chances are you don't want all that serious running, either.

Here's a solution: a portable mini net you can set up just about anywhere. It's perfect for modestly-sized gardens or driveways. We've even got one in the office for when Muzza's going strong and the inspiration hits us.

Connectedclubs.co.uk sells this home/driveway mini tennis package for £129 and it's a beaut.

It stows away nice and small, is dead lightweight and is easy as pie to set up. The mini 6ft net is attractive, springy and stable. Handily it also extends in case you want a spin at volleyball or badminton.

It also comes with six oversized soft balls that, despite some reckless shots, never managed to damage our office equipment.

Yes, it is pricey but it is satisfyingly sturdy, meaning you should be able to play more back garden grand slams than Roger Federer.

The home/driveway mini tennis package costs £129 at connectedclubs.co.uk

PET OF THE WEEK

Stella

With her hat and sunglasses, Stella is ready for a hot summer. The eight-year-old Staffie was nominated by Lisa Anderson.

Lisa said: "Everything about her makes her special. I've had her from 16 weeks old and when I'm at home she follows me everywhere. She's very happy to see people when they come round."

FILM REVIEWS

Read more movie reviews, news and interviews online at yourlocalguardian.co.uk/vibe

Accidental Love (15) ★★★★★

At the beginning of Accidental Love a woman, played by Jessica

Biel, is shot in the head with a nail gun (causing her to behave in an erratic and hyper-sexualised way. Hilarious, apparently).

Anyone who is unfortunate enough to watch it would doubtless wish for a similar fate – anything is preferable to what amounts to an utterly unwatchable mess. More dumbfounding still is the fact it boasts a multi-Oscar nominated director (David O Russell) – who has disowned the movie – and a stellar cast (Biel, Jake Gyllenhaal, Catherine Keener, James Marsden and Tracy Morgan).

It's troubled production (which began in 2008) perhaps goes some way to explaining the final product – Russell left the project after it hit financial difficulty – but an hour and a half of painful viewing leaves one question: Why bother releasing it at all?

Entourage (15) ★★★★★

Already a smash on TV, the programme based on

Mark Wahlberg's early career has become a cameo-packed film that's perfect to watch after a tough day when you don't want to think too hard.

Mr Selfridge actor Jeremy Piven carries the film and gives a good comedy performance as stressed-out Hollywood studio boss Ari Gold.

Yes, the film might be a bit shallow but sometimes shallow is OK when it's entertaining.

Conditions of acceptance of advertisements

General

- The following conditions apply to the placing of an order for insertion of advertisements in Newsquest Media Group ("Newsquest") printed or electronic publications. Each order will form a separate agreement and English law will apply. Any change to these conditions must be agreed by us in writing (which means by exchange of letter, fax or email). An "advertiser" means any person or organisation placing an advertisement on their own account or on behalf of another.

Contents

- The advertiser confirms that the advertisement complies with all applicable legislation, regulations and codes of practice, including the codes supervised by the Advertising Standards Authority. We may reject or require changes to any advertisement so as to comply with legal or moral obligations placed on us or the advertiser; to avoid infringing the rights of a third party or any relevant code of practice; or to meet our published production and quality specifications.
- The advertiser further confirms that:
 - the publication of the advertisement will not breach any contract, infringe the copyright, trademark or other right of any third party and is not libelous of any person;
 - all licences and consents from third parties necessary for the publication of the advertisement have been obtained and paid for, including consent from living persons identified in copy or pictures (photographic or otherwise);
 - in respect of an investment advertisement, the contents have been approved by, or the advertiser is, and authorised person within the meaning of the Financial Services Act 1986 as amended or the advertisement is otherwise permitted under that Act.

Payment

- All advertisements must be paid for in full at the time of booking unless credit has been agreed. The price shall be the amount fixed by our published rate card on the date of acceptance of the order plus VAT where applicable. For non-credit advertisers, we will cancel publication of an advertisement that has not been paid for on time. For credit advertisers, we will cancel publication of any future advertisements if payment is not made in accordance with our payment terms. For credit advertisers, interest will be charged on late payments at the rate of 3% above the Bank of England's base lending rate from the date payment is due together with the administration costs of collecting an overdue debt.

- By placing an order with us, an advertising agency confirms that it contracts as principal with full authority from its client in all matters connected with the order and is responsible for all payments due. We will only accept advertisements from advertising agencies if they are recognised by us.

- We will try to give notice of increases, but we reserve the right to change our advertising rates at any time. This will not affect contracts, including any fixed term agreement for a series of advertisements.

Box numbers

- We will use reasonable efforts to forward replies to box numbers within a reasonable time, but we are not responsible for any failure or delay caused by circumstances beyond our reasonable control, or for any losses relating to an advertiser's business or any loss that is not reasonably foreseeable by both parties.

Cancellation

- We will notify the advertiser of the latest time that orders can be cancelled (the "booking" deadline) and the latest time that advertising copy can be received by us ("the copy deadline"). An advertiser may cancel up until copy deadline and we will make reasonable efforts to re-sell the space, but the advertiser will be liable for the full price if the space is not sold and we will reclaim any unearned volume-based discount. Private advertisers booking by telephone or online may cancel in accordance with relevant law, but no refund shall be available after the copy deadline unless cancellation is due to our negligence. If the copy is not received by the copy deadline, we will not be liable if the advertisement does not appear, but the advertiser will remain liable to make full payment for the price of the advertisement.

- We will try to satisfy an advertiser's request regarding the positioning of an advertisement, but no guarantee of position can be given unless agreed by us and paid for at the rate then current.

Errors

- We are not liable for any error, misprint or non-appearance of an advertisement unless caused by our negligence, in which case the advertiser will be entitled to a re-insertion or proportionate refund. The advertiser is solely responsible for checking the advertisement on each insertion and ordering correction where necessary. Except where we have been negligent, we shall not be liable for an error or misprint that, in our reasonable opinion, does not materially detract from the advertisement. We shall not be liable in any case for losses relating to any business or public fund-raising for the advertiser, such as lost customers, revenue or profit.

Copyright

- Advertisements are accepted on condition that we have the right to publish them online as well as in any booked titles. The copyright in work or material we contribute to or re-work for an advertisement belongs to us. We will dispose of advertiser's copy, artwork, photographs or other materials after six months unless collected.

General

- We shall not be liable if our publishing activities are restricted or prevented by any law, act or event beyond our reasonable control (including, for example, industrial dispute). In such case, the advertiser shall accept publication when available or otherwise may cancel the order by written notice and pay only for work done and materials used.
- We will use the advertiser's details for internal administration. Unless the advertiser tells us not to in writing at any time, we may also share details with other Newsquest companies or with carefully selected third parties, who may send information about goods and services.
- The advertiser will be liable to pay us for all costs, losses, expenses and damages of any kind suffered or incurred by us as a result of legal claims or actions, actual or threatened, arising from the advertiser's breach of these conditions or the publications of the advertisement, unless caused by our own negligent act or failure.
- We may cancel the order at any time if the advertiser breaches these conditions and the breach is not capable of remedy or it continues for seven days after we have given written notice of it, or if we reasonably believe the advertiser is unable to pay debts or the advertiser goes or threatens to go out of business.

Method of payment

We will be pleased to accept your payment by any of the following methods: • CHEQUE - Made payable to NEWSQUEST (LONDON) LTD. • BACS - Electronic Bank Transfer • CASH - Paid to one of our Branch Offices. • CREDIT/DEBIT CARD - Please phone to pay by Visa/Mastercard/Switch/Delta

Phoebe lays down Law for English title

Kingston & Polytechnic Harrier Phoebe Law claimed the English U20 women's 3,000m title at Bedford at the weekend.

The 18-year-old clocked nine minutes 36.72 seconds to claim gold on Sunday.

Harriers, in action right, won their third successive league match at Wimbledon Park on Saturday to top the Southern Athletics League Division Three south west table.

Throws specialist Chris Dack was male athlete of the match.

Exciting times: Tom Onslow-Cole is getting used to life on the podium in sportscar racing

Le Mans may be repeated for Tom

New Malden race ace Tom Onslow-Cole hopes winning in an Aston Martin Vantage GT3 at Le Mans last week could be the ticket to a repeat performance in the same machine later this year, writes Stuart Amos.

The 28-year-old and team-mate Paul White won the 2015 Michelin Aston Martin Le Mans Festival on Saturday continue a season that has seen Onslow-Cole secure a top three finish in every race entered so far.

The weekend's 45-minute support race to the 24 Hours of Le Mans main event was Onslow-Cole's fifth event of the year but his first back in the Aston Martin.

Despite not racing the 6.0-litre V12 machine for several months, the former British Touring Car Championship driver qualified on pole in the GT3 class and third overall, before going on to claim the win.

"It was great to be back in the Aston Martin Vantage GT3," he said.

"I felt immediately at home in it and that allowed me to hit the ground running as I ran my first ever laps of Le Mans.

"Driving here is one of those dreams every driver has so you have a bit of an 'is this really happening' moment as you speed down the Mulsanne, especially in an Aston Martin as they have such history here.

"This is the very car that I did my first endurance race in back in 2013 and we've both gone on to do some exciting things.

"It's a fantastic car and I'm looking forward to making an announcement about my next outing in one."

HAPPY KNACK: More than 20 goals from striker means one thing

Jolly's play-off promise

SPORTS EDITOR
STUART AMOS

samos@
london.newsquest.co.uk

New striker Richard Jolly has backed himself to score the goals that get Kingstonian into the National League South this season.

The 32-year-old penned a new deal to switch to Kingsmeadow from Wealdstone last week and is one of six new faces boss Tommy Williams has signed this summer.

Jolly, below, went in to early retirement in 2013, having smashed 48 goals in a season for Wealdstone that took them to the Ryman Premier League play-offs and FA Trophy semi-finals in 2012.

He also netted the National Game Awards' step three player of the year and the Pro Direct non-League golden boot gongs that year.

And the prolific front man, a Ryman Premier League winner with Sutton United, reckons he can get Ks to a top five finish at least if he has half as good a season as that this time around.

"Someone told me a stat that if I score more than 20 goals in a season the team I'm playing in gets to the play-offs," he said.

"I'll stick by that and back myself to score more.

"If a few other people chip in from around the pitch as well then it is definitely on."

He added: "The league position last year did not reflect the quality of the team.

"Ks were still in with a shout of the top five with a couple of games to go.

"Only two more wins would have got them there.

"The mix of experience and youth in the squad means we have a great chance if everyone gels together quickly."

Well up for it

Starting early: Youngsters from Corinthian Casuals, left, and Met Police under nines were among hundreds of footballers to descend on Imber Court Sports Ground in East Molesey for a youth football festival on Saturday. See this week's Surrey Comet and kingstonguardian.co.uk/sport for more pictures

Best of a bad bunch

Cil van der Merwe's enterprising 68 underpinned Malden Wanderers' 21-run victory in a tight, rain-interrupted affair at Cranleigh, writes Steve Morgan.

The keeper – who also took two catches and a stumping – scored more than half the Stags' 118 all out from 48.4 overs, with only Giles Puckle (17) and skipper James Wackett (16) following him into double figures.

A break of an hour for rain slowed the outfield considerably, as well as making conditions very difficult for the bowlers, but a fine spell from 16-year-old Rafeh Jafri – who made his Surrey's second string debut earlier in the week – removed both openers with the score at 37 to give the visitors a sniff.

Jafri (3-20), abetted by seamer Neil Mander (3-25) and left-armers Giles Puckle (4-27) zipped through the home side's defences, with only Bruno Broughton (25) offering any real lower-order resistance as they slipped from 61 for four to 97 all out.

Wackett admitted conditions had been far from ideal. "It was a shambolic game," he said.

"Both teams batted terribly, but we held our nerve at the end."

Wanderers are 20 points off

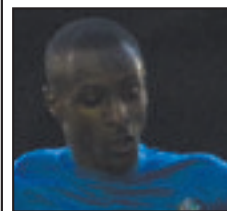

Key contribution: Wanderers keeper Cil Van Der Merwe 68 proved crucial in Saturday's win second placed East Molesey and head to struggling Chip-stead, Coulsdon and Wal-countians on Saturday.

SPORTSbrief

NEW SIGNING: Boss Tommy Williams says Kingstonian have acquired the services of a hard working midfielder in Harold Odamatey. The former Carshalton Athletic man, above, penned a deal to join Ks from Harrow Borough last week. "I've worked with Harold before and am delighted he has agreed to sign. He is a competitive midfield player with good energy and work rate," said Williams.

GOING TO RIO: Surbiton Hockey Club's Hollie Webb netted the opening goal as Great Britain beat China 2-0 to win the Hockey World League semi-final tournament in Valencia on Sunday. Team GB also featuring Surbiton stars Georgie Twigg and Giselle Ansley, had already qualified a team for next year's Brazil Olympics thanks to a 1-0 semi-final win over Germany on Saturday.

IN THE HUNT: Chessington kept in the Surrey Championship Division Two promotion race by avoiding defeat in a rain-affected losing draw at Epsom on Saturday. The hosts piled up 210 for two off 39 overs, but Chessington could only manage 85 for eight from the 28 overs they had in reply. Chessington are 17 points behind second-placed Old Rutlishians.

DOUBLE WIN: Kingston & Polytechnic Harrier Pippa Earley justified her selection with a pair of event wins at the South East Schools Inter County Championships in Erith on Saturday. The 14-year-old clocked 11.28 seconds to win the U15 girls' 75 metre hurdles and then set a mark of 5.62m to win the U15 girls long jump.

GOLDEN EIGHT: Surbiton's Moe Sbhi was part of the Team GB men's eight crew that claimed gold at the first World Cup regatta of the summer in Italy on Sunday. Molesey Boat Club captain Sbhi's boat pipped rivals Germany to the title by just three tenths of a second.

SILVER SAND: Kingston's U18 girls beach volleyball squad claimed silver at the London Youth Games finals held at Crystal Palace on Saturday. Kingston are 17th in the overall Jubilee Trophy standings.

PARKRUN: Simon Minting clocked 17 minutes 40 seconds to win on his Kingston parkrun debut on Saturday.
